

individual (or authorized                      legal representative), using Attachment A.

Individuals under the age of 18 years and adults who are unable to make an informed decision or

