

Tarbox cautioned adult patients when taking new medications as some can cause unwanted side effects. Some allergy medications can react badly to heart medications, inhalers and mood stabilizers. all medications you may be taking.

If symptoms are left untreated, there could be adverse long-term effects.

many adults might only have mild symptoms, t