

- f. Post-Exposure Management: Treatment and monitoring initiated upon report of a TTUHSC regulations, guidelines and recommendations available as of June, 2012 from the Texas Administrative Code (TAC), Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS), the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

- (4) LARC Animal handler program: Health surveillance guidelines are designed to protect both people and the laboratory animals, and are based on the Guide for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals (NRC 2008) Biosafety in Microbiological and Biomedical Laboratories, 5th Edition (2007), and other relevant published information.

b. Identification of Covered Individuals:

- (1) All TTUHSC students with direct patient care: covered under the Screening and Immunization Fee
- (2) TTUHSC employees and volunteers (who have patient contact or work directly with animals): Updated lists of covered individuals will be provided to the Office of Institutional Health as requested and in a timely manner.
- (3) Individuals working with animals through the Laboratory Animal Research

d ())Tscn 0 Tc 0 Centers 313 Td (.[((w)e)]TJ -)jim[Henoj nsR aaiem4 /TT0 1 Tf 9.96 - Tc 0.002 Tw -34.5787 T

