

Wings of War: The Story of the Women's Airforce Service Pilots

At the height of World War II, more than a thousand women left their homes and jobs for the opportunity of a lifetime—to become the first female pilots to fly for the US military. Eager to prove themselves, they faced danger and discrimination, and 38 gave their lives for their country.

Drawing on archival footage, rarely seen home movies, and interviews with pilots themselves, this production tells the fascinating story of the Women's Airforce Service Pilots.
