TTUHSC Pain Journey: Non Nobis Laboramus

Dr. Gabor Racz completed both his M.D. and his Ch.B. degrees at the University of Liverpool Medical School in Liverpool England. In 1963 he began an anesthesiology residency at SUNY Upstate Medical Center in Syracuse, New York. Dr. Racz joined TTUHSC in 1977, becoming the first Chairman of the Department of Anesthesiology. He held that position until 1999 at which time he became Director of Pain Services.

In 1996 Dr. Racz was honored by TTUHSC as the first recipient of the Grover Murray Professorship, recognizing his distinguished achievement in the institution as well as internationally. In 1999 he was awarded the TTUHSC Endowed Professorship in Medicine.

Dr. Racz holds the certificate of Diplomat with the American College of Pain Management as well as the American Board of Anesthesiology certification in Pain Management and the World Institute of Pain Fellow in Interventional Pain Practice. In addition he holds the American Board of Interventional Pain Practice certification.

The Racz International Pain Clinic is currently being constructed on the TTUHSC campus. A dedication ceremony is scheduled for November 11, 2008.
