

Addressing Comments in Human Ethics

The Analyst will return the submission to the investigators/study team, at that point the team will need to open the form to see what comments need to be addressed.

Sections with unresolved comments have a comment bubble icon indicating the total number of unresolved comments in that section. Click on the section to see which questions have a comment attached.

Addressing Comments in Human Ethics

Once all comments on the submission have been addressed and the submission has been completed, the PI will need to re-certify the submission to return it to the Analyst.

Note: If the submission is a Modification or Incident the IRB can
